Curriculum Vitae

RYAN J. MURPHY focuses his practice on complex litigation matters, particularly those involving personal injury, insurance coverage, commercial disputes, fraud, subrogation and recovery, toxic torts, and general liability litigation. He represents corporate entities and individuals, both as plaintiffs and defendants.

Mr. Murphy has litigation experience in the state courts of both Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Prior to joining the Firm, he spent several years as an Associate at a regional insurance defense law firm where he concentrated his practice on handling cases in the areas of automobile negligence, premises liability, construction defect and workers' compensation.

Upon graduating law school, Mr. Murphy served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Michael J. Donohue, J.S.C. (Ret.), in the Criminal part of the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division in Cape May County. During his tenure as a law clerk, he also served as a mediator for civil cases pending in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Special Civil Part.

Mr. Murphy received his Juris Doctorate from Rutgers University School of Law- Camden. While at Rutgers Law School, he served as the Lead Notes Editor of the Rutgers Journal of Law and Religion. He was also a student attorney in the Rutgers Law School Advanced Civil Practice Clinic. During law school Mr. Murphy served as a judicial intern in Federal Court to the Honorable Jean K. FitzSimon (Ret.) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Murphy graduated from Ursinus College with a B.A. in History and Politics. While at Ursinus College, he was a four year member of the Men's Soccer team as a goalkeeper. He served on the team's leadership council and earned multiple Centennial Conference awards during his collegiate playing career.

Mr. Murphy is an Associate in the Firm's litigation and insurance services group.
