Curriculum Vitae

ALEXANDER J. GRODSKI is a member of the Firm's Transactional Practice Group and has over twenty (20) years' experience in the areas of estate planning and administration including the design, negotiation and drafting of contracts, wills, simple and complex trusts, and tax planning vehicles for tax and probate avoidance.

He assists high net worth clients with preserving, protecting and distributing their wealth to their beneficiaries, and represents individual and corporate fiduciaries before Connecticut Probate Courts. An "knowledgeable" and "engaging" public speaker, he has given public seminars on estate and Medicaid planning and wealth preservation before hundreds.

Alex is an active member of the Estates and Probate and Elderlaw Sections of the Connecticut Bar Association and is admitted to practice in the state of Connecticut. He received his B.A. from Seton Hall University, cum laude, and his J.D. from the University of Connecticut School of Law, where he graduated with honors.
