The EWNJ event acknowledges the contributions of influential New Jersey women leaders in business, government and academia, and adds two New Jersey companies to its “Business Honor Roll.” The gala primarily raises funds for the EWNJ’s Graduate Merit Award Program, which is focused on ensuring new generations of women leaders. Over the past 30 years, the scholarship program has provided over $1.2 million to more than 300 women.

Ms. Alexander has been associated with the Firm as an attorney and in a senior management capacity for nearly 18 years. She is co-founder of MDM&C’s Women’s Initiative and member of the Firm’s Diversity & Inclusion Committee. Ms. Alexander is Past-President and current member of the Newark Museum’s Business and Community Council. She also serves on the Advisory Boards for NJTV, NJLEEP, and Project U.S.E. She also sits as a member of the New Jersey Magazine Editorial Board. In 2013, Ms. Alexander was named one of New Jersey’s “New Leaders of the Bar” by the New Jersey Law Journal, and in 2016, she was named one of New Jersey’s “Best 50 Women in Business” by NJBIZ magazine.

MDM&C Managing Partner, Edward B. Deutsch, said, “Nicole continues to play an important management role within our Firm, and also has been a highly effective outside ambassador for the MDM&C brand across the state of New Jersey. Importantly, as this EWNJ honor recognizes, Nicole has long-served as a role model for women who aspire to make a difference in the organizations they serve. We congratulate Nicole on this achievement, and celebrate her well-earned success.”

Founded in 1980, EWNJ is the leading senior-level executive women’s organization that is committed to increasing the number of women serving on corporate boards and in the top leadership of New Jersey companies.
