MDM&C Selected for Connecticut Law Tribune's Litigation Department of the Year Awards

MORRISTOWN, NJ – March 9, 2015 – McElroy, Deutsch, Mulvaney & Carpenter, LLP (“MDM&C” or “the Firm”) today announced that it has been named the Connecticut Office of Out-of-State Firm Litigation Department of the Year for General Litigation by the Connecticut Law Tribune.

This award for “top litigation department” was chosen by a panel of judges that "based its decisions not only on overall litigation success, but on the range of practice areas represented in top cases and the overall impact of the results."

MDM&C’s litigation practice is comprehensive and multidisciplinary. With a platform of almost 300 lawyers, and twelve offices in seven states, MDM&C is uniquely positioned to represent Fortune 500 companies, middle market and smaller businesses, municipal and other public entities, as well as individual clients. The Firm’s specialties and areas of expertise include but are not limited to: Commercial Litigation, Insurance services, Construction, Bankruptcy, Healthcare and Employment. Our attorneys have secured precedent-setting judgments for the Firm’s clients and helped develop industry-wide best practices.
