

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Contact:
Dennis J. Maggi, CAE
Executive Director
dmaggi@actl.com | 949.752-1801

JOHN ZEN JACKSON ADMITTED TO AMERICAN COLLEGE OF TRIAL LAWYERS

John Zen Jackson has become a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, one of the premier legal associations in America.

The induction ceremony at which Mr. Jackson became a Fellow took place recently before an audience of approximately 585 persons during the recent 2015 Spring Annual Meeting of the College in Key Biscayne, Florida.

Founded in 1950, the College is composed of the best of the trial bar from the United States and Canada. Fellowship in the College is extended by invitation only and only after careful investigation, to those experienced trial lawyers who have mastered the art of advocacy and whose professional careers have been marked by the highest standards of ethical conduct, professionalism, civility and collegiality. Lawyers must have a minimum of fifteen years trial experience before they can be considered for Fellowship.

Membership in the College cannot exceed one percent of the total lawyer population of any state or province. There are currently approximately 5,860 members in the United States and Canada, including active Fellows, Emeritus Fellows, Judicial Fellows (those who ascended to the bench after their induction) and Honorary Fellows. The College strives to improve and elevate the standards of trial practice, the administration of justice and the ethics of the trial profession. Qualified lawyers are called to Fellowship in the College from all branches of trial practice. They are carefully selected from among those who customarily represent plaintiffs in civil cases and those who customarily represent defendants, those who prosecute individuals accused of crime and those who defend them. The College is thus able to speak with a balanced voice on important issues affecting the legal profession and the administration of justice.

-more-

Page 2 of 2

John Zen Jackson is a partner in the firm of McElroy, Deutsch, Mulvaney & Carpenter, LLP with a principal office in Morristown, New Jersey. He has been a practicing attorney for nearly 40 years and is admitted to the bar in New Jersey, New York, and the District of Columbia. He served as President of the Trial Attorneys of New Jersey in 1999-2000 and in October 2014 received the Trial Bar Award from that organization. The newly inducted Fellow is an alumnus of Tufts University and Seton Hall University School of Law and since 1985 has been certified by the New Jersey Supreme Court as a civil trial attorney.

###