Third Largest Law Firm in New Jersey to Expand Health Care Practice

MORRISTOWN, NJ – MAY 18, 2011 – Kalison, McBride, Jackson & Robertson, P.C., (“KMJ&R”) one of the most highly respected health care practices in New Jersey, has agreed to join the firm of McElroy, Deutsch, Mulvaney & Carpenter, LLP (“MDM&C”) effective July 1, 2011. This addition will propel MDM&C to 286 attorneys in nine offices in six states. All thirteen KMJ&R attorneys will join the Morristown office on July 1.

KMJ&R attorneys have a statewide and national reputation in the health care field and have substantial experience in general corporate and business law and general litigation. Their practice is comprehensive and ranges from counseling clients on the day-to-day issues that arise in their practices to representing large health care systems and business corporations in complex corporate, transactional and litigation matters. “We are thrilled to be able to bring our extensive experience in the health care law field to MDM&C and better serve our clients with the breadth and depth of expertise that MDM&C’s attorneys offer,” says Jim Robertson, Managing Partner of KMJ&R.

“We are extremely pleased to have such respected professionals become part of our health care practice” says Ed Deutsch, Managing Partner of MDM&C. He explains, “We started this firm with a concept of what a law firm could be. Over the years, we turned the vision into reality, developing a firm that clients trust implicitly and in which our attorneys take great pride.”
