MDM&C Selected for New Jersey Law Journal's 2016 Litigation Department of the Year Awards

MORRISTOWN, NJ – September 26, 2016 – McElroy, Deutsch, Mulvaney & Carpenter, LLP (“MDM&C” or “the Firm”) today announced that it has been named the 2016 Large Firm Litigation Department of the Year Winner in the category of Insurance Law by the New Jersey Law Journal (“NJLJ”).

The NJLJ’s editorial staff considered work that was done primarily by New Jersey lawyers in a variety of jurisdictions in New Jersey and beyond. MDM&C was able to showcase its talented trial lawyers and litigators that appear regularly in New Jersey state and federal trial and appellate courts on behalf of its insurance industry, public and private sector clients.

MDM&C has served the insurance industry for more than 30 years with more than 200 attorneys practicing in the area of litigation. More than 100 of those attorneys specialize in insurance coverage, insurance defense, and the independent and corporate litigation needs of the insurance industry. The Firm has been privileged to represent more than 75 insurance companies, including some of the largest in the State of New Jersey and the United States. The unique and diverse experience level of MDM&C attorneys serving the insurance industry affords it the opportunity to be of full service to its insurance clients, handling thousands of assigned defense matters, spearheading pre-litigation investigation, handling all aspects of insurance coverage, serving as sniper counsel for many of its insurance industry clients and finally, serving the private, and individual litigation needs of numerous insurance industry clients.

MDM&C takes pride in the reputation its attorneys have earned in the courtroom. Its litigators and trial lawyers zealously represent their client’s interests and are known as attorneys who continue to try cases to verdict in most counties across the State of New Jersey and in Federal Court, even though the total number of cases tried continues to diminish. Indeed, in 2015 MDM&C attorneys tried cases in Atlantic, Bergen, Camden, Essex, Hudson, Middlesex, Monmouth, and Passaic Counties. The sheer number of experienced attorneys specializing in litigation and trial practice places MDM&C in a position of strength to represent insurers and insureds in an extraordinarily wide range of substantive areas varying in size and complexity.
