MDM&C Attorney Loren L. Pierce Named to 2016 Top Women in Law by New Jersey Law Journal

MORRISTOWN, NJ – September 29, 2016 – McElroy, Deutsch, Mulvaney & Carpenter, LLP (“MDM&C” or “the Firm”) today announced that attorney Loren L. Pierce was named to the New Jersey Law Journal’s (“NJLJ”) 2016 Top Women in Law. The NJLJ’s editorial staff wanted to shine a light on the outstanding work being done by female attorneys across New Jersey who have had notable achievements in recent years, or who have otherwise made an extraordinary impact on the legal profession. The 25 attorneys that were selected to this year’s list are all making strides to push the profession forward for women.

Ms. Pierce has over 25 years of experience representing businesses from Fortune 500 companies to start-up ventures. In addition to general commercial litigation, Ms. Pierce’s practice is focused on insurance coverage, health care and employment litigation. She also has experience in environmental, class action, and fraud litigation. Ms. Pierce served as co-chair of her practice group, Litigation and Insurance Services for 10 year and is also co-founder of the Firm’s Women’s Initiative.

Ms. Pierce currently serves as President and previously held positions as President Elect, Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the New Jersey Women Lawyers Association. Previously, she served as the Association’s Co-Chair of Corporate Relations for four years. She also served as member of the Executive Committee, Young Lawyers Division, New Jersey State Bar Association. Ms. Pierce is a member of the American, New Jersey and District of Columbia Bar Associations.
