Richard J. Williams, Jr. has been invited to Join the Claims and Litigation Management Alliance

MORRISTOWN, NJ – October 26, 2015 – McElroy, Deutsch, Mulvaney & Carpenter, LLP (“MDM&C” or “the Firm”) is pleased to announce that Richard J. Williams, Jr. has been invited to join the prestigious Claims and Litigation Management Alliance (“CLM”). The CLM is a nonpartisan alliance comprised of thousands of insurance companies, corporations, Corporate Counsel, Litigation and Risk Managers, claims professionals and attorneys. Through education and collaboration the organization’s goals are to create a common interest in the representation by firms of companies, and to promote and further the highest standards of litigation management in pursuit of client defense. Selected attorneys and law firms are extended membership by invitation only based on nominations from CLM Fellows.

Mr. Williams has extensive experience in defense litigation including products liability, auto defense, general negligence, insurance coverage and bad faith, contract disputes, employment law, and workers’ compensation. Mr. Williams has experience at both the trial level, having tried several cases to verdict, and before the appellate courts, as well as several administrative courts such as the Division of Workers’ Compensation. He also handled numerous matters before various federal courts, including the United States District Court and Third Circuit Court of Appeals. Mr. Williams serves as an officer of the Trial Attorneys of New Jersey and coordinates the organization’s annual Back to Basics seminar given to attorneys preparing for the Supreme Court Civil Trial Certification examination.

Mr. Williams serves as a Practice Group Manager for the Litigation and Insurance Services Practice Group at MDM&C. Mr. Williams also serves as the Chairman of the Board of Directors for a non-profit organization, the Institute for Excellence and Ethics.
