JOHN W. KAVENEY is Of Counsel in the Firm’s national Health Care Practice Group. He represents a range of health care clients, including hospitals and health systems (non-profit and for-profit), academic medical centers, physician groups, individual physicians, ambulatory surgery centers, ancillary service providers, medical billing companies, skilled nursing facilities, rehabilitation facilities, behavioral health centers, and pharmacies. His practice in the healthcare field includes work on Medicaid and Medicare reimbursement matters before the Division of Medical Assistance and Health Services and the Provider Reimbursement Review Board as well as work on corporate compliance and HIPAA compliance matters, health care regulatory matters, civil litigation and professional licensing matters.

Mr. Kaveney also has considerable experience in the insurance defense field representing attorneys in civil litigation against claims of legal malpractice.

Mr. Kaveney began his career at the firm of Kalison, McBride, Jackson & Robertson, P.C. in 2008. He received his Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of Notre Dame in Management Information Systems and his Juris Doctor from Seton Hall University with a concentration in Health Law. During law school Mr. Kaveney served as a judicial intern for the Hon. Thomas P. Olivieri, P.J.Ch. and the Hon. Harriet Farber Klein, J.S.C.

Mr. Kaveney has spoken regularly on health care and civil litigation issues. He has also written, in local and national publications, on a variety of health care topics and is a regular contributor and the managing editor to the Firm’s Health Care Law blog.

He has also been listed in Super Lawyers® Rising Stars (2013-2017), a Thomson Reuters business, in the areas of Health Care and Professional Liability: Defense. A description of the standard or methodology on which the accolade is based can be found HERE (No aspect of the advertisement has been approved by the Supreme Court). Additionally, in 2016, Mr. Kaveney was named one of New Jersey’s “New Leaders of the Bar” (formerly called “Top 40 Lawyers Under 40”) by the New Jersey Law Journal.
