AVIATION

MDM&C’s aviation practice encompasses a full range of transactional, regulatory and litigation matters. Experienced lawyers in this group, some of whom are also pilots, together with lawyers from our other practice groups, such as employment law, bankruptcy and litigation, provide representation in a wide range of areas involving the aviation industry, including:

- aircraft sales and purchases
- aircraft financing and leasing
- formation of companies for the joint purchase of aircraft
- disputes involving aircraft transactions and accidents
- pilot regulatory matters, FAA and NTSB administrative proceedings
- general representation of FBOs and flight schools
- tax advice in connection with the ownership and operation of aircraft
- employment related matters
- hangar construction, purchases and leasing
- commercial drone operations, including Section 333 Exemptions from the FAA.
