Overview

Curriculum Vitae

JANE E. YOUNG is a Partner in the firm's Colorado office. She has over twenty years of experience representing insurers and third-party administrators in complex coverage and bad faith disputes around the country. Her work involves all types of insurance policies, first and third party coverages, including commercial general liability, construction, environmental, automobile, property, directors and officers, etc. She assists insurance carriers and third-party administrators in assessing coverage under policies and evaluating exposure, representing her clients in alternative dispute resolution proceedings and advocating for their positions with mediators and insureds. As lead counsel in coverage/bad faith disputes – big or small, she assists her clients in developing a plan for defense and executing that plan to reach the most efficient and effective resolution for her clients.

Ms. Young has tried cases in state and federal courts and also argued in the Colorado appellate courts and Tenth Circuit.

Ms. Young also regularly speaks on insurance coverage and bad faith topics at local and national seminars around the country. Most recently, she was asked to be an instructor at CLM's Claims College in the Fall 2020. In addition to her speaking engagements, Ms. Young also assists her clients in training adjusters and underwriters to address claims handling and coverage issues, and to keep her clients informed on new developments in the law.
