Overview

Curriculum Vitae

TIMOTHY J. PROFETA is an Associate in the Firm's Construction Group.

Mr. Profeta graduated magna cum laude from Rhode Island College where he received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology with a particular focus on history and historical trends.

Mr. Profeta received his Juris Doctorate, cum laude, from Seton Hall University School of Law. While in law school, Mr. Profeta externed for the Honorable Walter F. Timpone at the New Jersey Supreme Court. Mr. Profeta was also a fellow with Seton Hall's Center for Policy Research where he helped represent two clients detained in Guantanamo Bay. As a fellow, he also co-authored an article titled, "How America Tortures," which detailed the occurrences of torture that took place at both Guantanamo Bay and Abu Ghraib. That article was sourced by the New York Times and the BBC. Before graduating, he also served as a student attorney with Seton Hall's prestigious Impact Litigation Clinic. As a student attorney, he and his partner successfully argued before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, which vacated a decision issued by the Board of Immigration Appeals.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Profeta served as a law clerk to the Honorable Maritza Berdote Byrne, P.J.Ch in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Chancery Division. He is admitted to practice law in the State of New Jersey.
