Overview

Curriculum Vitae

JOYCE E. BOYLE is a graduate of Rutgers University where she received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communication and a graduate of Seton Hall School of Law. Ms. Boyle has extensive experience representing insurance carriers, including London Market companies, in complex coverage and defense matters – many of which involve commercial general liability insurance, products-completed operations insurance, umbrella/excess insurance, first and third party property insurance, life insurance, environmental claims insurance, employment practices liability insurance, professional liability insurance, London Market policies, captive insurance and commercial automobile insurance. Ms. Boyle has also represented insurers in state and federal courts in complex declaratory judgment actions. She also has experience counseling and representing insurers in complex claims involving rescission; “personal and advertising injury” coverage under primary and umbrella/excess insurance policies; and coverage claims involving defamation, disparagement, invasion of privacy, constitutional claims and false advertising. Additionally, Ms. Boyle has developed claims manuals for her clients and provided counsel on policy wording issues. In addition to insurance litigation, Ms. Boyle represents clients in the following areas: product liability, cyber liability, commercial, environmental, and construction defect.

Ms. Boyle is published in Michigan State University's Journal of Medicine and Law, "To Pay or Not to Pay, That Is The Question: Finding An Intermediary Solution Along the Moore Spectrum."

Ms. Boyle is admitted to the bars of the State of New Jersey, the United States District Court, District of New Jersey, the State of New York, the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit and the United States Supreme Court.

Ms. Boyle is a member of the Middlesex County Bar Association. Prior to attending law school, Ms. Boyle worked at Twentieth Century Fox Film Corporation for approximately ten years where she developed and implemented national and international film release marketing campaigns, and organized large scale events and premieres.
