Curriculum Vitae

KRISTI BLUMHARDT is an attorney in the Firm's Colorado office and is a member of the Commercial Litigation Practice Group. She regularly counsels businesses on employment issues pertaining to wage disputes, employee handbooks, wrongful termination, confidentiality and non-compete contracts, and harassment, discrimination and retaliation issues. She represents businesses in EEOC and Colorado Civil Rights Division investigations and has successfully defended and/or settled cases involving wage disputes, charges of race, age, sex and pregnancy discrimination, wrongful termination claims, violations of confidentiality and non-compete agreements, as well as disputes pertaining to breaches of fiduciary duties and the duty of loyalty.

Ms. Blumhardt represents insurers in a wide range of coverage matters involving first party, third party, and bad faith claims. She also maintains a general commercial litigation practice including product liability defense, construction defect claims, ownership disputes, D&O liability, and contract disputes.

Ms. Blumhardt is a member of the Denver Research Institute and the American, Colorado and Denver Bar Associations. She is admitted to practice in the State of Colorado, the United States District Courts for the District of Colorado, the Northern District of Texas, and the Central District of California as well as the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Ms. Blumhardt is a graduate of the University of Colorado (B.A. 1985) and the University of Denver (J.D. 1994).
