Overview

Curriculum Vitae

DAVID P. PRIMACK is a Co-Chair in the Firm's Bankruptcy Practice. He graduated from the University of Chicago with honors in classical studies and earned his M.A. in classical studies from the University of California, Santa Barbara. Prior to entering law school, Mr. Primack served as a legislative aide in the United States Senate. He received his J.D. from the William and Mary School of Law and was awarded the American Bankruptcy Institute Award for excellence in bankruptcy. While in law school, Mr. Primack served as senior articles editor on the William and Mary Law Review and was a member of the William and Mary Bill of Rights Journal.

He focuses his practice on Chapter 11 cases and adversary proceeding litigation. In addition to his bankruptcy practice, Mr. Primack appears regularly as counsel in the Delaware state and federal courts representing clients in such areas as toxic tort and product liability, construction, insurance and corporate litigation.
