Overview

Curriculum Vitae

ERIC G. SIEGEL is a 2004 graduate of Drew University, where he received a B.A. in Political Science. Mr. Siegel graduated from Widener University School of Law in 2011, where he received a Juris Doctorate and was a member of the Trial Advocacy Honors Society. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Siegel served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Thomas F. Brogan, P.J.Cv., Presiding Judge of the Civil Division for the Superior Court of New Jersey, Passaic Vicinage. Mr. Siegel is admitted to the bars of the State of New Jersey, State of New York, the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, and the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York.

Mr. Siegel is a Partner in the firm's Insurance Services and Litigation Department. Mr. Siegel has experience representing insurers in complex coverage matters involving various insurance programs, including general liability insurance, first-party residential and commercial property insurance, umbrella/excess insurance, environmental claims insurance, and directors and officers insurance. In addition, Mr. Siegel has represented insurers in complex claims involving "personal and advertising injury" coverage under both primary and umbrella/excess insurance policies, which include underlying claims for trademark infringement, trade dress infringement, copyright infringement, defamation, disparagement, invasion of privacy, and false advertising. Mr. Siegel also has experience representing insurers in both first-party and third-party bad faith litigation, toxic tort exposure matters involving various coverage triggers and complex allocations for both primary and umbrella/excess risks, in addition to experience in product liability litigation, construction defect litigation, and class actions.
