Overview

Curriculum Vitae

PETER M. LAUGHLIN focuses his practice on corporate and commercial law, with an emphasis on mergers and acquisitions. In addition, Mr. Laughlin has extensive experience counseling growth-oriented companies in connection with expansion opportunities, having served as lead counsel coordinating the legal aspects of expansions ranging from the establishment of new business subsidiaries in different states (including site acquisition, project finance, construction documentation, local governmental agreements and joint venture agreements) to core business expansions financed through the private placement of equity and debt securities. He also utilizes his technical background on behalf of manufacturers and technology-based companies, whom he counsels on intellectual property licensing, technology development and transfer issues, and trademark and copyright matters.

Mr. Laughlin's clients include companies in the hospitality and entertainment, manufacturing, retail and technology sectors.
